Dear Parishioners of Saint Helen's:

There's no easy way for me to say what I need to share with you. After a lot of prayer and discussion with other priests and advisors, I requested that Bishop Brennan grant me a leave of absence. This is something that I've been thinking about for a few years. The advice I was given was to accept my assignment here at Saint Helen's, to give it a year or so, and then to make a decision.

Without going into specifics, I faced a series of personal and health issues while in college and in seminary formation. These interfered with my prayer life and my ability to discern my vocation. To be clear, I felt called to the priesthood and I followed this calling in good conscience to the best of my ability. The leave of absence that I've requested is an opportunity to further discern my calling with a clear mind and heart. Throughout this time, I will remain in contact with the diocese and continue working with the priest who is my current spiritual director.

I'm conflicted about this decision. I believe that I need this time to carefully consider my future. I also regret that this decision will hurt or disappoint you, who have supported me and cared for me throughout the past two years. I don't know for certain whether this is the right decision or not. After all, no one really knows what the future holds. I'm trying my best to believe that God, Who led me to this point in my life, will continue to guide me wherever He wants me, in spite of any mistakes I might make.

Thank you for your prayers and your kindness. I'm grateful that I had the opportunity to be of service to you.

READINGS FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Reading I

Prv 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God: "The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways, the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago; from of old I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no fountains or springs of water; before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there, when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; when he set for the sea its limit, so that the waters should not transgress his command; then was I beside him as his craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, playing before him all the while, playing on the surface of his earth; and I found delight in the human race."

Responsorial Psalm

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I behold your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you set in place —
What is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him? R.

You have made him little less than the angels,
and crowned him with glory and honor.
You have given him rule over the works of your hands,
putting all things under his feet: R.

All sheep and oxen,
yes, and the beasts of the field,
The birds of the air, the fishes of the sea,
and whatever swims the paths of the seas. R.

READINGS FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Reading II Rom 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Alleluia

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
to God who is, who was, and who is to come. R.

Gospel Jn 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."
